Calder D. Ehrmann

Greenville

Calder DeBruler Ehrmann, 74, passed away on February 9, 2015 at the McCall Hospice House. He was born June 13, 1940 in St. Louis, Missouri and was the son of the late Carlos Royal Ehrmann and Ellen Thurman Ehrmann.

Calder graduated from Missouri Valley College with a degree in Economics and Business Administration. He worked at the Chevrolet Division of General Motors in St. Louis and White Truck in Cleveland before joining Michelin North America in 1977, and over the course of thirty years, held a wide variety of positions within the company.

Following Calder's retirement from Michelin, he worked as a Senior Associate in the Richard E. Riley Institute at Furman University, working with the Diversity Leaders Initiative in South Carolina.

Calder is a graduate of Leadership Greenville, was on The Greenville Technical College Area Commission, was a Deacon at First Baptist Greenville and was on the Board of the American Church in Paris. He served on the Greenville University Center Board of Visitors, the Board of the Camperdown Academy, the Clemson University Board for Distance Learning and Continuing Education, the South Carolina Research Authority Board, the Board of the Urban League of the Upstate and Greater Greenville Chamber of Commerce Executive Committee.

His recognitions include: The Greenville Chamber of Commerce's Buck Mickel Award for Community Leadership, The Furman University Upstate Diversity Leadership Award, The Urban League's Whitney M. Young Humanitarian Award and The South Carolina Research Authority's Knowledge Economist Award.

He is survived by his wife of 50 years, Ann Ehrmann; two sons, Calder Ehrmann (Dorinda) of Georgia, and Jacob Ehrmann (Dorinda) of Carolina; three grandsons, Atticus Ehrmann (Melanie), sister, Karolyn Ehrmann Hume (Charles); one first cousin, Millicent Mason Westerfield; one brother-in-law, Kenneth Cantrell (Melanie); and nieces and nephews.
